

SoftDucts Shapes

The optimal shape to transport a fluid is circular, since it has the largest area of conduction and the smallest surface friction. However, for aesthetic cases or problems with limited space, different shapes can be used such as: Half-Round, Quarter-Round, Ellipse and twin duct.

